Introduction

This Code of Conduct Policy is intended as a guide and a help to all school staff. It sets out standards of conduct which staff are expected to follow when within, or representing the School. This code is not exhaustive but is written to assist staff and it is important that staff should take advice and guidance if necessary. If in doubt, ask.

The underlying purpose is to ensure that the School provides a high quality service to its pupils, students and families in accordance with the Vision, Values and Mission Statement and to promote confidence in the integrity of the School.

- It takes in the requirements of the law and attempts to define the required levels of professionalism to ensure the wellbeing of the School, its staff and families.
- It has been drafted to comply with School Policies and Procedures.
- Staff are requested to read this policy carefully and consider the issues which it raises.
- The Principal will also ensure that all staff are aware of the policy's contents and are fully briefed on its implications.
- Reference to this policy will be made in all contracts of employment, and copies will be given to all staff. In addition, the induction programme for all new staff will reinforce the principles of this policy.
- Investigations of alleged breaches of this policy will be covered under the School's Disciplinary procedures and related codes of practice.

Code Of Conduct

- Staff's off-duty hours are their personal concern, even if living on the school site, but they should avoid a position where duty and private interests conflict. This includes:
 - Staff members making online associations/friendships with current pupils via social networking/social media websites or platforms is not permitted.
 - Staff members using texting/email facilities on either their mobile phone or PC/Mac to communicate with current pupils or past pupils is not permitted.
- The above have been included to safeguard the safety of pupils and the safety and professional integrity of school staff.
- The School does not seek to preclude staff unreasonably from undertaking additional employment but you are required to devote your full time, attention and abilities to your duties during your working hours and to act in the best interests of the School at all times. Accordingly, you must not, without the written consent of the Principal, undertake any employment or engagement which might interfere with the performance of your duties or conflict with the interests of the School.
- It follows that, regardless of whether you are employed on a full-time or part-time contract, you are required to notify the Principal of any employment or engagement which you intend to undertake whilst in the employment of the School. (including any such employment or engagement which commenced before your employment began with the School).

Specific Aspects

Discrimination: Staff must at all times observe the School's Equal Opportunities Policies for staff and pupils and treat pupils, parents and other stakeholders in accordance with those policies.

Health and Safety: Staff must take care of their personal hygiene, safety and welfare, and that of other persons who may be affected by their acts or omissions. All staff must comply with the requirements of the School Health and Safety policy and relevant legislation and regulations, and also ensure that pupils do likewise.

Fire: Staff must familiarise themselves with the fire precautions, procedures and drill routines. They must regard practice fire drills or building evacuations in a positive manner, and ensure they are perceived by pupils as an essential precaution to prevent risk of injury or fatality.

Business Practice: Staff must maintain an impeccable standard of integrity in all their professional relationships.

Media: Other than on matters of publicity, only the Principal is authorised to speak or send any communication on behalf of the School to members of the press or broadcast media. This decision is to avoid any embarrassment or unfair pressure on staff. This authorisation may be extended by the Principal to other staff members.

Copyright: Staff shall observe copyright laws on computer software, audio-visual and printed material.

Data Protection Act: It is the responsibility of all employees to ensure the School's compliance with the Data Protection Act. Personal data must only be used to assist you to carry out your work; it must not be given to people who have no right to see it. All staff should maintain the security of all computerised databases of information on individuals, whether they are staff, pupils or members of the general public. Staff should refer any queries to the Principal.

General Points

- Staff should display the highest possible standards of professional behaviour that is required in an educational establishment (see also Appendix 1).
- Staff should seek to co-operate with their colleagues, providing support, help and guidance as required by them and their line manager, and enable effective communication throughout the School.
- Staff must not use their position in the School for private advantage or gain.
- Staff must avoid words and deeds that might bring the School into disrepute or might undermine colleagues in the perception of others (staff/pupils/parents/community).
- Staff must retain professional independent objectivity and not promote dogma or political bias to others in their working activities.
- Staff must be aware of, and must follow School policies, systems and procedures. They should normally communicate through the line management structure, and should ensure pupils do likewise.

Continuing professional development and support shall be provided by the School and, where appropriate and agreed, will be based on the objectives of the School Development Plan. Periodically, employees will be required to attend certain training activities.

Staff should attend their place of work punctually in accordance with their conditions of service and at the times agreed with their line manager. Those unable to avoid being late or absent should, whenever possible, give as much notice to the Principal so that alternative cover arrangements may be made.

Administrative Duties

- Teaching staff shall maintain and properly complete a register for all classes. The attendance register must be completed using the electronic system at the start of the morning and afternoon sessions. If the system fails to open, a paper register must be completed and sent immediately to the administration office.
- In order to ensure safeguards both for staff and pupils, staff must obtain permission from the Principal:
 - before taking pupils off the School premises;
 - before arranging for any visiting speakers;
 - before incurring any expenditure on behalf of the School.

Confidentiality

Staff shall maintain the appropriate levels of confidentiality with respect to student and staff records and other sensitive matters. They should take care not to discuss issues of particularly sensitive matters within the School community which could cause distress to School staff, pupils or parents.

When in doubt, ask!

If any member of staff is in any doubt with regard to the guidelines of this Code, and how they apply in any particular situation, then please consult with the Principal. It is re-emphasised that this Code is intended to be a help and to enable fairness and equity between all staff.

Appendix 1

Professional Behaviour

Professional behaviour is a generic term, but within this Code of Conduct includes such aspects as:

- acting in a fair, courteous and mature manner to pupils, colleagues and other stakeholders;
- co-operating and liaising with colleagues, as appropriate, to ensure pupils receive a coherent and comprehensive educational service;
- endeavouring to assist the School achieve its corporate and strategic objectives – in particular, by adopting a positive attitude to marketing and the achievement of quality and equality;
- respect for School property;
- maintaining the image of the School through standards of dress, general courtesy, correct use of School stationery, etc.;
- taking responsibility for the behaviour and conduct of pupils in the classroom and sharing such responsibility elsewhere on the premises;
- being fit for work;
- being familiar with job requirements (eg proper preparation, use of suitable methods/systems, maintenance of appropriate/required records, etc), including keeping up-to-date with developments relevant to the job.
- being familiar with communication channels and School procedures applicable to both pupils and staff;
- ensuring all assessments/exams/tests are conducted in a fair and proper (prescribed) manner, and that procedures are strictly followed with respect to confidentiality and security;
- respect for the rights and opinions of others.

This list is not exhaustive but the examples are given as a summary.

Appendix 2
